

ORION HEALTH COMPANY OVERVIEW

No patient falls through the gaps

The future of healthcare is connected, intelligent, and patient-centred.

Orion Health brings together the technology, data and insights needed to make that future possible.

Healthcare systems were built for a different era.

Today, rising demand, workforce strain, increasing patient expectations and fragmented systems are creating a new challenge: keeping healthcare relevant to the way people live, work and expect to receive care.

The future of healthcare is connected, intelligent and patient-centred.

It means connecting data across the health system, giving clinicians the information they need when they need it, and making it easier for people to access and navigate their care.

Orion Health helps health systems move from fragmented to unified, intelligent and impactful - creating a trusted digital health foundation that connects data, reveals insights and supports better decisions, all embedded in everyday workflows.

HEALWELL AI and Orion Health are joining forces to revolutionise healthcare with AI-driven, data-powered solutions. Together, we're setting a new standard—enhancing efficiency, improving patient outcomes, and empowering healthcare providers worldwide.

The future of healthcare isn't spending on bricks, mortar, and enormously expensive hospital automation IT projects. The future as we imagine it, will be underpinned by a healthcare system that empowers people, reveals insights from data, and unifies healthcare silos seamlessly, and securely across the ecosystem, improving the efficiency of care and advancing the well-being of everyone.
